Are You Willing To Vote $225,000 For Upland Parks?

Are the citizens of Upland interested in obtaining land park sites when the acquisition may mean a $225,000 bond issue?

For that matter, are the civic leaders of the community willing to recommend that their friends and neighbors vote for it?

These are questions which members of the Upland Ways and Means Capital Improvements Committee find are bothering them these days.

Allan S. Barr, a member of the committee, points out, "We face a $100,000 bond issue for immediate improvements needed on the city's water system. We are considering a $50,000 addition to the Civic Center. Then comes $225,000 for parks and recreation needs. The question each member of the committee has to decide is— Are you willing to recommend that the people vote that much for parks and recreation?"

"Can it be sold to the people?" was the question Committee Chairman Donald Carr submitted. "Once a bond issue fails, it's hard to build it up again."

Ray Sherwood, former member of city council, said recommendations on recreation needs seemed the hardest decision to reach in community affairs.

On the other hand, Committee Member Don Adams, manager of San Antonio Water District, felt it was a case of "shuffling through" all the needs of the community.

"Certain things are needed," Mr. Adams insisted. "In regard to parks and recreation, there is some land that if we don't buy it, we won't be able to buy it again." But he noted that "some of our present park lands are not all developed yet."

It is Chairman Carr's contention that the Ways and Means Committee should try to encourage the city remaining on a pay-as-you-go basis.

City Councilman William Kistinger, chairman of the parks and recreation commission, has come out strongly for acquisition of park sites. He has declared: "I'd be willing to see 10 cents added to the tax rate for specific spending on park sites."

Councilman Philip Holden said he'd rather see it in form of a bond issue placed on the April ballot. "That way we can buy all the property we need at one time," Mr Holden said. He pointed out the city would save money since property values continue to rise in Upland year by year.

But Mayor Abner Haldeman advocates caution. "Let's await the priority report which the Ways and Means Capital Improvements Commitee will soon submit," the mayor said.

And he told the members of that committee to remind themselves that their title includes, as Mayor Haldeman put it, "ways AND means!"

Upland Dog Named 'Most Heroic'

The ONLY NEWSPAPER Reaching EVERY HOME In The GREATER UPLAND Area

SIXTY-FIFTH YEAR — NO. 16 | UPLAND, CALIFORNIA | PRICE 10c Single Copy | THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1959

Young Master Tells Of Pet's Barking Rescue

Most Heroic Pet title in the Chaffey Community area was today held by Wendy, 5-year-old female cocker spaniel belonging to 12-year-old Harold A. Camilli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Camilli, 2118 Sierra Dr., Upland.

This was announced from Humane Society of the Chaffey Community through Director Mrs. Edward [illegible] sen.

The award was made as the result of a letter written by young Camilli about [illegible]. The letter related how the little dog's insistent barking led to rescue of Alfred Alomi, Harold's grandfather, when the then 81-year-old man fell while walking in a grove and was unable to get up.

The dog, who had accompanied Mr. Alomi, ran barking to the patio where remainder of the family was sitting. Investigation of reason for the barking led to finding of the stricken man.

Harold and Wendy will ride in the Humane Society float in the Ontario All-States picnic parade on the Fourth of July — a wagon pulled by ponies. In addition for his letter, Harold received a $25 defense bond and a year's membership in the Humane Society.

Solution In Zoning?

Use of the off-street parking zone will apparently be employed by Upland City Planning Commission as final move in straightening out the zoning and street dedication entanglement which snarled up three lots owned by G. N. Marsh at 13th St. and Foothill Blvd.

Public hearing, as initiated by City Council through the planning commission, will be held at 7:30 p.m. July 23 in City Hall council chambers to rezone the rear half of Mr. Marsh's lots from R-3 (residential) to C-4 (commercial), same as the front half of his property.

But Planning Consultant Simon Eisner advised the commission that wherever there are shallow C-4 areas, the off-street parking zone should be encouraged to fill out such commercial properties and to establish a buffer protecting residential areas.

Mr. Marsh, who had just completed an arrangement with City Council whereby he exchanged an estimated $3200 in property for proposed widening of 13th St. for Medco tract traffic for $2300 in city services and a building permit for a taco business, seemed agreeable to use of the parking zone.

At first, however, the patient Mr. Marsh must have thought he was in for another weird bit of handling which started two months ago when this same planning commission informed him he would have to dedicate 30 ft. to the city for widening of 13th St. Since Mr. Marsh had already dedicated 15 ft. of his property for that same street, he did not see why he must dedicate more and carried his troubles to City Council

For Mr. Eisner opened the Marsh phase of the Thursday, June 25 planning session by stating that this was a rezoning for a wrecking yard.

"Wrecking yard?" interjected a member of the commission. "I thought this was a taco restaurant!"

Mr. Eisner stood corrected, but, amid the laughter, observed he personally couldn't see much difference between the two.

Upland Baton Twirlers Nab Fair Awards

Upland's Anchor-Ettes, precision marching and baton twirling corps directed by Karen Staples, captured honors at the Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair this week.

Miss Staples also nabbed a first place individual award in the twirling competition for contestants 14 years of age and over.

The Anchor-Ettes captured the first place award in junior competition in the Twirlerama State Corps Championships and took second place in the senior division.

Last year the Anchor-Ettes outscored the state championship corps from Santa Ana to win first place in the Huntington Beach Fourth of July parade.

Elwin Alder In Hospital

Apparently as result of exhaustion from civic duties, Upland City Manager Elwin (Pinky) Alder was today in San Antonio Communith Hospital with virus pneumonia.

Filling in this weekwith necessary work on the city budget whichwill be presented for acceptance by City Council at its Tuesday, July 7 session was Administrative Aide Ronald Yielding.

Mr. Alder went into the hospital Sunday for what the family physician said was a needed "nice rest for several days."

New Civic Building Studied

Unless the Mongtomery master plan for Upland's water system is ready at the time, chief item of business which will be considered by the Capital improvement Committee at its Wednesday night, July 29 meeting will be a new building in Civic Center.

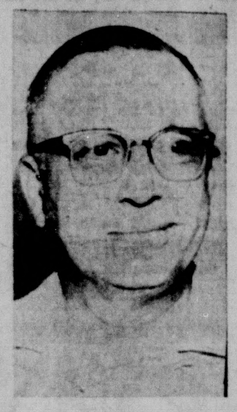

Allan Barr of the Civic Center committee requested the city manager to furnish the meeting with an up-to-date cost estimate of the structure.

The new building, which would be projected north of the present City Hall, was estimated by the former study committee of citizens at $80,000, according to Chairman Donald Carr. It would contain city offices and offices for community services and the chamber of Commerce.

Besided Mr. Carr and Mr. Barr, other members of the Capital Improvement Committee are Don Adams, E. E. Hawthorne, Ray Sherwood, Harold Stewart, Dwight Bert, Harvey Shirk, Jim Stamm and George TeVelde.

Upland Elementary School District Board of Trustees holds its re-organizational meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 1.

SAFETY COUNCIL URGES OPEN FORUM ATTENDANCE ON SIDEWALK PROBLEM

Upland Safety Council has called for an Open Forum in City Hall council chambers at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 8. (See Editorial: Section two, page two.)

Purpose: To discuss installation of sidewalks on both sides of Euclid Ave. from Foothill Blvd. to 16th St.

Reason: To protect pedestrians, especially children who must walk to and from school at Sierra Vista, Upland Junior High and Upland High during the fall, winter and spring.

Who composes this Upland Safety Council?

A poultryman, a city engineer, a policeman, a school transportation expert and a comely housewife.

The poultryman is Harold Barbour, chairman of the Safety Council. It was his suggestion that led to setting of the Open Forum date. This followed reports of Euclid Ave. problems by PTA representatives and Euclid residents Dr. and Mrs. Truman T. Ackerson.

The city engineer is Harold Wilder. Mr. Wilder explains his function at the Safety Council by saying, "I am more interested in what can be done than what should be done. I keep the council advised on city ordinances and practical applications. I do agree that the situation along Euclid Ave. north of Foothill is a hazardous condition."

Before the Open Forum was called for, Mr. Wilder advised Chairman Barbour,"I think you will find the majority of residents on Euclid do not want sidewalks."

The housewife isMrs. Rick Byrket. She feels it is the landscaping advantages of the 25 ft. of public property Euclid Ave. residents without sidewalks are using that causes whatever opposition there is to the sidewalks.

"To me it boils down to a child's life against landscaping," Mrs. Burket said. 'I think the homes along Euclid which have sidewalks have just as nice landscaping as those without."

The school transportation expert is Dell Gibson, superintendent of transportation for Chaffey Schools. It was he who originally pointed out the problem caused by school children having to walk in high speed lanes of Euclid Avenue. "I think this problem is of vital interest, not only to the residents of Euclid Ave., but to everybody north of Foothill," Mr. Gibson declared.

The policeman is Sgt. Tom Davis. It was he who made the motion that the Open Forum on the subject be held. "We're not afraid of a debate on this matter," he asserted. "If a car wipes out three or four children who have to walk to school in the traffic lane of a high speed highway, how does that compare with the cost of installing sidewalks?"

And Sgt. Davis noted: "We've got the pro of this matter—we need the con."

Mrs. Harold Breeding, Sierra Vista School PTA representative, made the most telling statement which led to setting the Open Forum. She estimated that "one-half of the problem" of getting children safely to school down Euclid Ave. would be solved by the installation of sidewalks.

So strongly do Dr. and Mrs. Ackerson of 1358 N. Euclid Ave. feel about the need for sidewalks they have officially requested extension of sidewalks remainder of the block from in front of their property under the 1911 Improvement District Act "for the safety of children."

Schedule For July 4th Fetes

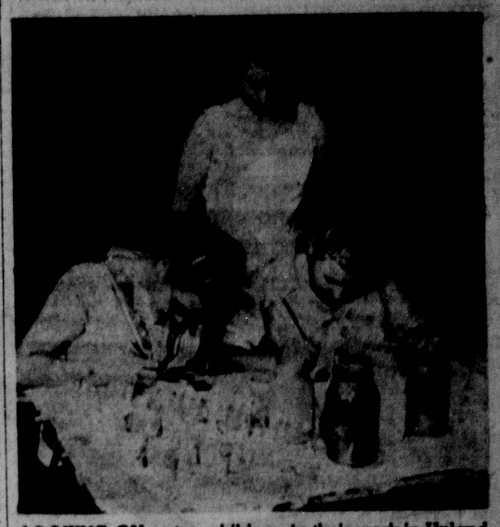

Fourth of July festivities for residents of the Greater Upland area will be highlighted by Upland American Legion's all-day picnic at Post Headquarters on Arrow Hwy., the All-States Picnic in Ontario and the fireworks display in Claremont.

Former residents of other states will begin to assemble at tables arranged alphabetically by states along the two-mile row of tables in the Euclid Ave. parkway in Ontario at 11 a.m. July 4. A "Welcome Alaska" parade led by Picnic Queen Kathy Michik, Miss New York is scheduled to start at 1:30 p.m.

Claremont's parade is scheduled to start at 3:45 p.m. at Memorial Park. A carnival will be held at the junior high school grounds. The fireworks display will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Annual Swim Meet

The annual Kiwanis Swimming Meet for 1959 is scheduled for Upland High School pool at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 22. Eligibility is confined to Chaffey and Upland High School districts and members of swim teams in this area. Entries close at 5 p.m. Friday, July 17.

The girls, from left, are Lee Thomson, 12, 1373 N. First Ave., and Susan Dunning, 11, of Wilson Ave. Daily classes are held for boys and girls, 8 through 14 years of age, from 8:30 a.m. to noon at Upland Junior High and from 1 to 3 p.m. at Sierra Vista School. — NEWS Photo

ODD-BALL SITUATIONS COME BEFORE UPLAND COMMISSION

Effort of the property owner to straighten out what Planning Consultant Simon Eisner termed 'a strange parcel of property" at the southeast corner of San Antonio Ave. and 24th St. was given the blessing of Upland City Council at its Thursday, June 15 meeting.

No official action was taken, however, and anxious Mr. Fischer, the young property owner, was left more or less to his own devices following lengthy discussion by the commission.

Mr. Eisner described the questionable property as a 40 by 80 ft. wash "hanging in the middle of space all without benefit of clergy. It's like China. It isn't there." No record of survey has ever been filed on it, he said.

Mr. Eisner added: "That 40 by 80 parcel can't be left hanging. It's an odd-ball situation."

It was noted the wash furnished a logical property-line break, and that if the planners were serious in maintaining their one acre parcels in that high class residential area, it might be wise to include the wash in an adjoining lot to bring the whole area closer to standard. By creating two 16,000 sq. ft. lots or making one a transition lot and getting back to 20,000 sq. ft. lots as quickly as possible was suggested as the possible answer.

Worry about the wash becoming a haven for tin-cans was more or less ruled out by the area. A fill was suggested but Mr. Eisner pointed out would cost about $5000 and even as a gully the "odd-ball piece" could be landscaped to advantage.

The planners notified Mr. Fischer that however he handled the matter an 11 ft. dedication would be required on San Antonio Ave.

In other business:

Four lots betweenCampus Ave. and Eighth were rezoned from M-1 to M-2, light manufacturing to heavy, but seven others on to Ninth also requested for rezoning were left at M-1 as a buffer zone to residential property.

The rezoning to restore the area to M-2 beside the railroadtracks was instigated by Byron Walborn to obtain storage yards for his wrecking yard at 105 Eighth Ave.

The planners also ruled that a small chemical plant handling zinc residues for the spraying of oranges could remain in the M-1 zone indefinitely, but could not expand unless an industrial engineer advised otherwise.

A hardship plea by Roy Haigh proved successful in finally obtaining a variance for a canopy over an island of his service station on Euclid Ave., providing he did not use imbedded posts and excess illumination at night. Planner Max Hawkins opposed the variance, claiming no new arguments had been presented to over-rule previous commission action denying the canopy.

Senior Girl Scouts Depart For July National Roundup

Following many months of training and work in preparation for the National Girl Scout Roundup to be held in Denver, July 3 to 12, six senior scouts of Chaffey Girl Scout Council left by train from San Bernardino, Monday, June 29, at 11 p.m. They joined hundreds of other girls from California, all heading for the same destination.

The local delegation is represented by Barbara Lewis as patrol leader; Margery Tudor will be news correspondent, transmitting daily messages to local papers; Delphine Miller will be news commentator, preparing sevtape recording to be heard at a later date by local radio listeners: Sandy Brown, Judith Casenave and Dianne Taylor.

Two girls from India will join the six local girls, to complete the requirement of eight members. At the close of the National Roundup, the scouts from India will return to Upland with our representatives and be guests at the homes of Dr. and Mrs. John E skewis, 886 N. First Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Lewis, 894 E. Seventh St., for two weeks.

This Roundup, the largest single event for teen-age girls sponsored by the Girl Scouts, of USA, will be an encampment of 10,000 Girl Scouts from every State, territory and 28 foreign countries. Its purpose is to provide opportunities for our girls to meet and know girls from all parts of the country and other lands, with different views, backgrounds and expectations; an opportunity to see their own country first hand and develop new interests and hobbies, particularly in geology, space and astronomy study, photography and art, and languages.

$20,000 Booster Unit Advised To Pep Up Low Upland Water Pressure Areas

Suggestion that an estimated $20,000 booster unit be installed in the Upland city water system on 15th St. was made to City Council by the Capital Improvement Committee Wednesday night, June 24.

The suggestion was made following preliminary report on Upland's water situation by Robert Carroll, Montgomery Engineers, and a report on pressure troubles north of Foothill Blvd. by City Engineer Harold Wilder.

Don Adams, manager of San Antonio Water Co., had it put into minutes of the Capital Improvement Committee with the idea that the booster equipment, although for temporary use at 15th St., be of a type usable in future water plans of the city.

City Councilman Philip Holden,manager of Ontario Water Co., asked from the audience: "Is Mr. Adams supplying the $20,000?"

Mr. Adams grinned back at Mr. Holden and said, "That's up to the council."

City Engineer Wilder pointed out that even with the 16-inch transmission line on San Antonio Ave. between 21st and 15th Sts. low pressure areas could be expected along Euclid Ave. above Foothill whenever the Medco tract put on a heavy draw this summer. He mentioned the booster as key to solving the immediate problem even though it might be good "only for a year or so."

Mr. Carroll agreed the booster was something the system needed.

Mr. Adams felt it would be wise to get the booster installed in the neighborhood of 60 days if possible. He added that San Antonio Water Co. could furnish a temporary booster in an emergency.

Mr. Carroll reported the final Montgomery report on the projection into future growth of the community would be ready in "about a month." He said the report would program in detail what the city should need for the next five years.

"We believe the ultimate population for Upland will be 65,000," Mr. Carroll said. "The Eisner report estimated 80,000. If some of your upper land doesn't stay agriculture, you might add 20,000 sometime after the year 2000."

For the population of 65,000 Mr. Carroll said the Montgomery study indicated the city would have to supply 20,000 acre feet per year. This, he noted, is just about what the current population is using now.

Next step in the Montgomery study, Mr. Carroll reported, will be to set up reservoir locations and sources of supply and finally a system to be developed by the city to the mutual benefit of all. Mr. Carroll said Upland would not need a filtration plant within the next five years. He said ultimate water production for Upland would have to be 284 gallons per capita per day.

"I think Upand is in an excellent water position," Mr. Caroll said. "You have a versatile system. You are fortunate."

But he added, "In dry years, Upland hasn't enough water available and you'll have to use the Feather River." He said if Upland had the means of storing its 60 inches from Metropolitan Water District, that would be wise. The city has to look upon Cucamonga basin as a source of supply, he declared.

The new booster is nothing new in planning of the Upland Water Department, it was noted by Mr. Wilder. Water Superintendent John Estes proposed the booster at the 15th St. location a number of years

MISS GRIGGS HONORED BY FORMER PUPILS

Miss Elizabeth Griggs, 403 N. Campus Ave., was guest of honor at a dinner at Ro Val's restaurant, Sunday evening, June 28, given by her former pupils at Upland Grammar School. William Wilding, as master of ceremonies, placed a gold crown upon her head, and proclaimed her "Queen" of all students who had been privileged to have her as a teacher. She was also presented a sweater, a gift from former pupils and friends.

MissGriggs was born on a farm in Nebraska in 1874, and began teaching in country schools after completing eight grades of schooling. In 1909, she went to teach in a country school near Roswell, N. Her first assignment was the seventh grade at Upalnd Grammar School, later teaching eighth grade where she shared duties with Miss Nellie Randall. She made a daily practice of reading a passage from the Bible and once a week a famous quotation was wirtten on the blackboard for the pupils to memorize and recite at the end of the week.

When Upland Junior High School was completed, she transferred to that school where she taught geography, history and social problems. Retirement came in 1939 and looking back on 40 years as a teacher, more than 1000 students had been in her classes. She has knitted more than 1000 pairs of booties for the children and grandchildren of former pupils.

Present at the dinner were Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Benton, William Bowden, R. E. Logan (Ruth Clark), Robert Kitchell, Shuler Briggs (Dolos Long), Kenneth Martin (Una Oswald), Alfred McIntosh (Anna Puehler), Richard Barr Louella Vandenberg) William (Phyllis Moore) Wilding, Francis Mahler, Harold Mingo; Mmes. Forest Fire Threat Causes Closures

As a forest fire prevention measure, certain of the steeper, chaparral covered mountain watersheds within San Bernardino National Forest will be closed to use and public entry during the high fire hazard summer months, according to Supervisor Don Bauer.

These precautions invoked by the Regional Forester in the public interest will go into effect Wednesday, July 1, 1959. Maps showing restricted areas are available at all U. S. Forest Service Ranger Stations. Signs are posted at all road and trail entrances to the closed area and at intervals along the boundaries to inform hikers, campers, fishermen, hunters and others of the location of the closed areas should inquire at the nearest ranger station. All persons having business of an official or emergency nature which necessitates travel in a closed fire hazard area must fire secure a permit from the nearest Forest Ranger Station. Bonafide residents going to or from home, or persons traveling on public highways within the closed area need not secure a permit.

"Forest fire danger in the mountain and foothill areas of San Bernardino National Forest has now reached the critical period," according to Bauer, "every possible fire prevention precaution must be taken to avoid destruction of some of this state's most valuable watershed and mountain recreation areas."

Expecting in excess of seven million visitors during 1959, Forest Rangers are working constantly to prevent any disastrous fires from occuring.

MR. AND MRS. LEE PATTON AND small daughers, Judy Ann, left Friday night, June 26, for a two-weeks vacation trip with Duluth, Minn. as their ultimate destination. Enroute, stop-overs will be made to Carlsbad Caverns, and Kansas City, Mo. The trip is being made in the family car. Mr. Patton is an Upland News employee.

Spur Track Sought Over MWD Area

Budget adopted for Chino Basin Municipal Water District calls for expenditures of $58,720 next fiscal year. Although representing a smaller budget compared to this fiscal year's $67,781, the board of trustees policy does not indicate a lower tax rate but a build up of reserves for future construction.

No funds are included for starting the Chino feeder system construction, which is still under study.

Manager Howard F. Clark reported that Dan Mikesell, former county supervisor, recently conferred with him re-regarding determining from Metropolitan Water District terms and requirements for carrying a Santa Fe spur track over the aqueduct for serving the Cucamonga industrial area between the aqueduct and Freeway.

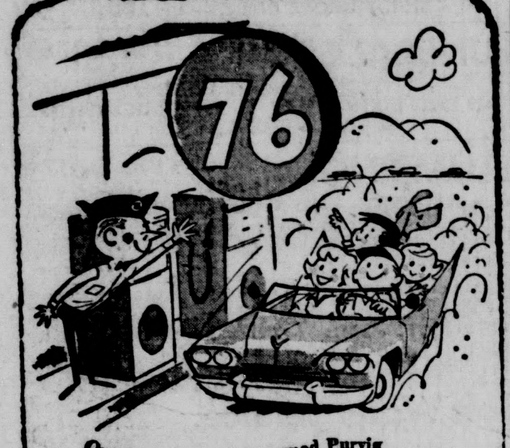

Bid of Close Insurance Agency at $2,577.24 on Chino Basin Municipal Water District comprehensive general and liability insurance was accepted over two other bids.

Cheyennes Plan August Outing In High Sierras

A Cucamonga YMCA group of a dozen youngsters under Club Advisor Ralph Bullock, superintendent of Cucamonga School District, plans an August outing in the High Sierras. Dads are invited to take their vacations with their boys, Mr. Bullock said.

From Aug. 22 to Aug. 28 the Junior Hi-Y Cheyennes will be in the Sierras. Starting from Mammoth Lake public camp grounds, where they will camp for a day or so the party "will hike up 1,000 ft. to Purple and Virginia lakes along the John Muir Trail.

Mr. Bullock is still seeking transportation to Mammoth. Plans for the outing is being worked out by Cliff Watkins and Bob Jennings of the Upland-Ontario YMCA. Fathers who have indicated intent to accompany the the Cheyennes include George Vidal, Max Wells and Arlie Arington.

Out driving, a couple named Purvis
Formed their children were frequently nervous,
But they got at the cause—
They found time to pause
At the sign of fine Minute Man service.

—Tom F. Trumbull, Shelton, Wash.

On your vacation trip, as well as around town, you expect to find clean, safe service stations, with spotless rest rooms. Good reason to stop at Union Oil stations, where regular inspections reinforce the Minute Man's day-to-day housekeeping.

Let No Ugly Freeway's Arch Mar Upland Beauty

In a few short years Upland will have a new freeway shooting Easterly and Westerly between 19th and 20th Streets.

The route is pretty well settled now.

However, we have never been told by the State about having a sunken freeway and crossing of Euclid Avenue, or whether the freeway will be at normal level with a great big arch over Euclid.

Past action by the City Council has been passage of a vote that such a crossing of Upland and Euclid Avenue should be depressed.

Practically everyone in Upland wants a depressed freeway.

We have talked with a man recently who said he felt the freeway should rise high over Euclid so visitors could get acquainted with the beauty of Upland . . . as they zoom up in the sky.

We have considerd this viewpoint carefully, and we cannot agree.

We think the beauty that is Upland belongs primarily to those who live here. The drive to the mountains is most impressive to a visitor traveling up Euclid . . . and we think a big concrete archway would be most hideous and unsightly.

It's time now to put the heat on the State, so that such an ugly archway never is built to mar the beauty of Upland.

We don't want that type of freeway. And the louder we all yell the better the State will know how we feel.

The freeway will be here forever . . . and we may as well have it done right the first time . . . and the only time.

Exercise Your Rights At Safety Council's Forum

Among the methods of government employed under our democratic processes which have made this Nation great is the Town Hall type of meeting. All interested members of the community who desire to do so can rear up on their hind legs in front of everybody and get their opinions on specific subjects off their chests.

We hope this will be true at the Open Forum which has been call by Upland Safety Council for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 8.

The subject is important, because it concerns our children. Secondarily, it concerns the growth of our community. Both subjects should be of vital concern to all citizens of Upland.

Members of the Safety Council (you may see their pictures and statements on Page One) think the question of installing sidewalks all the way from 16th St. down to Foothill Blvd. is a necessity to protect pedestrians — especially school children.

But recognizing that there are two sides to all questions (sometimes more), the Safety Council has called this Open Forum to determine community feeling on the subject.

Whether your thinking is pro or con on the problem you should take advantage of this Open Forum to exercise your right of free speech in this great land of ours. It may help resolve this Euclid Ave. problem.

● We know we can trust the ladies of Upland (bless them all) to support in full force the Upland Little League Baseball Auxiliary ladies only benefit fashion show at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Malone, 225 S. Laurel Ave., on July 7.

This is the first attempt of the Auxiliary to raise funds. All proceeds will be used for purchase of equipment and expenditures for Upland Little League baseball. There is never any better cause than the welfare of our youngsters.

Summer Theatre Sets Here Take 6 Months To Prepare

Set design and construction for the Upland - Ontario Summer Theatre's first play, A ROOMFUL OF ROSES scheduled July 10 and 11 in Auditorium, have been six months in production, according to Stowell Werden, stage manager, and Dennis Logan, set designer.

Both Logan and Werden have obtained and purchased materials and lights from several places ranging from Hollywood to Upland.

Other production staff members for the show include Jim Lawson, Bob Burleson, lighting and sound; Bobby Fox, Jeff Forte, stage crew; Bonnie Mackenzie and Linda Sampson, costumes; Charles Thompson, properties; Gary Hartshorn, busi- Pat Hicks, Joy Laughlin, and dy Hamm, Sharon Hanson, Judy Weldon, makeup.

Furniture is being provided by McMahons Furniture Store in Ontario and both boys and girls costumes are being furnished by Atwoods' and Dary's Shirt Shop, Upland merchants.

A richly furnished, modern New England home isscene of the play, as designed by Dennis Logan.

The musical score used as background for the play is taken from the soundtrack of the 20th Century Fox motion picture THE GIFT OF LOVE.

Posters were designed by Pamela Arterburn.

Tickets for the production are being sold for $1.

Children under 12 may purchase them for 50c.

INGENIOUS GIANT TABLE CONCEIVED BY UPLANDER

Major Harry L. Moore of Upland has conceived an ingenious giant sand table which is aiding the training of officer candidates at Fort Benning Georgia.

Major Moore, former principal instructor of the Training Committee of the U.S. Army Infantry School's Special Subjects suggested the table as an instructional device for teaching subjects such as combat formations, tactics, terrain analysis, map reading and fire admust.

It will be used to illustrate a type of sand table which can be constructed by relatively unskilled personnel to emphasize use of salvage material normally available at any military installation.

New Books For You . . .

. . . At Upland Public Library

The field of children's literature has a new look, according to Mrs. Althea Correll, children's librarian. Fifty years ago, boys and girls delighted in such books as LITTLE WOMEN, BLACK BEAUTY, ALICE IN WONDERLAND, LEATHERSTOCKING TALES, and JUNGLE TALES.

Today's children read the old favorites, too, but the following scene is played at our local library not just once but several times a day:

A bright-faced lad speaks to the librarian. "I'd like a book on electronics, please."

"For what grade?"

"Third grade.'

If the young man had lived 50 or even 20 years ago, he would not have found a book on electronics within his reading range. Today's authors are doing a good job of supplying the needs of boys and girls.

Two new books to be issued this week illustrate the case in point. IT'S ABOUT TIME by Miriam Schlein introduces the fourth dimension to second grade readers. UNDERSTANDING TIME by Beulah Tannenbaum and Myra Stillman covers the history and science of clocks and calendars and leads sixth grade readers farther along the way to understanding the theory of relativity.

Just in time for the skin-diving season is BOY BENEATH THE SEA by Arthur C.Clarke with almost as many photographs by Mike Silson as there are pages. The dangers as well as the pleasures are described.

Equally timely is THE FIRST BOOK OF THE SOVIET UNION by Louis L. Snyder. The author has done a difficult task well. In less than one hundred pages, he has given a brief history of Russia and its satellites and a description of conditions in the country today.

THE GOLDEN TOMBO by H. Tom Hall is a story of Toru, a boy of Japan. The Golden Tombo is a golden dragon-fly which plays an important part in Toru's life. life. This book should make third and fourth graders who read it feel very close to the boy who wanted so much to do well in the school hobby show.

Another easy book about a boy in a foreign land is THREE SEEDS by Hester Hawkes. The story takes place in the Philippines where even three cabbage seeds are important when a boy is trying to help his family.

THE VALENTINE CAT by Clyde Robert Bulla and THE BIG JUMP by Benjamin Elkin are two more additions to the collection for very young people.

A novel that high school girls will like is LIFE IN A JOURNEY. The Simmonds family was happy and closely knit but Stanley, a veteran of the war in Korea, was having a hard time to adjust to normal living after three years in prison camp. A disasterous forest fire and an unhappy heiress struck the family in quick succession. Gertrude F. Finney is the author. Her love and understanding of the woods and wild creatures adds to the charm of the story.

Fireworks Prohibited Here

Discharge, possession, sale or offering for sale of any type of fireworks in San Bernardino and Riverside counties, including San Bernardino National Forest, is prohibited by state law and county ordinance, according to Donald Bauer, forest supervisor.

"One small spark from fireworks or any carelessly used fire", stated Bauer, "could bring about a serious forest fire with threat of loss of life and destruction of our valuable watersheds and recreation areas."

Forest Rangers, expecting even larger crowds than the 300,000 persons who visited San Bernardino National Forest during the July 4 weekend in 1958, are taking every possible precaution to prevent even the smallest fire from starting.

Persons purchasing fireworks in other areas, including the so-called "safe and sane" fireworks, are cautioned not to transport them into or through San Bernardino or Riverside counties. Strict enforcement of all fire laws will include confiscation of all fireworks brought into the national forest.

Additional fire patrols including the use of airplanes and helicopters will maintain a constant watch on the Forest to insure a safe, enjoyable Fourth of July.

College Board OKs New Fiscal Budget

$1,818,217 for the 1950-60 fiscal year was approved for submission to the county by Chaffey College Board of Trustees Wednesday night, June 24.

At the same time, at instigation of Trustee Rober Wallace, a member of the Kaiser Steel, Fontana accounting department, it was moved by the board that monthly estimates on the budget be presented to the board at the July meeting by Comptroller William Grigsby. Trustee Arvel Smith, also an accountant, said the estimates would be valuable in cutting down margins of error in expenditures.

The college budget is based on a 35 cent tax rate, the same as last budget, plus three cents for community services and two cents for retirement.

The new budget is $27,209 over the last. Expenses were provided for moving the college to the Alta Loma site. An estimated 2414 students are expected next fall compared to 2259 this past year.

Budget reserve funds total $203,806.

Summer Tips On Pets

'Leave your pet at home during the hot weather," advises John Steinbrugger, Humane officer. During the heat, the officer will be on lookout for pets left in cars by unthinking owners. "A car can become an inferno in a few minutes," he says.

He further stated that even with the windows open, a car in the sunshine will become a deathtrap for a pet. Heat will craze a normally placid pet, he continued, and cause it to turn on its owner. Any pets found in cars standing in the sun, and suffering, will be removed from the cars and taken to the shelter.

He also suggested that owners leave their pets at home when making a trip to the beach. He said the hot sand is no place for a pet. The sand irritates his skin, the salt water can cause skin rashes, and the heat will make the pet irritable.

Keep your dog at home, provide lots of cool shade and drinkingwater for him. Feed him lightly. He will be happier and so will you," Steinbrugger concluded.

More than 100 youngsters gathered at the YMCA recently to take part in annual Operation Balloon, sponsored by Ontario Y's Men's Club. The youngsters released a balloon filled with helium gas and watched it soar out of sight. They were competing for valuable prizes in the Y's youth program through their efforts to send a balloon with their name attached further than anyone else.

Each balloon that went aloft carried a card addressed to Upland-Ontario YMCA with one of the youngster's name attached. The youths' names who appear on the cards returning from the greatest distances will be awarded free activities at the "Y".

First prize is a free week at Y Summer Camp, second prize a free period of Summer Fun Club, and third place winner receives a free year's membership in the YMCA. Anyone finding one of these cards is asked to drop it in the nearest mailbox.

Fishing License Sales Boom

Sport fishing license sales are booming and a record year appears in the offing.

Fish and Game Director William E. Warne announced that sales through May have increased by 24 per cent over the comparable period last year. They are also 10 per cent ahead of 1957 when the department sold a record 1,433,817 licenses.

The increase of new anglers prompted Warne to urge that all sportsmen use fire with extreme caution while in the field.

"The fire hazard is exceedingly great this year because of the unusually dry winter and spring," he said.

"I ask all sportsmen to take extra care when they are out fishing and hunting this year. A carelessly tossed match or cigarette could result in great tragedy. Everyone knows that lives, property and forest resources are always endangered by fire, but sportsmen should know that they also stand to lose a great deal from fire which destroys game habitat and dries up fishing streams."

Warne said license figures through May 30 showed a total of 656,456 fishing licenses sold, 129,910 more than for the similar period in 1958.

License stamp sales have also increased. Sales of 815,051 stamps thus far are 12 per cent ahead of last year.

Upland Drops Cage Fray To Claremont

Upland High School's Summer League Basketball team lost first game of the season, 41 - 27, to a rugged Claremont five. Highland scoring ace Louie Black was shackled down to only six points after a 34 - point performance against Montclair. This makes Upland 1 - 1 and Claremont 3 - 0. Both teams will be battling it out in the TCL cage league next fall and winter.

Danny Hazelton, a Bee graduate, sparkled for the winners with a 15 - point effort. For Upland, Black and Jim Fink had to settle for high honors at six. Coach Kehr, unable to be present at the games, is back East in school.

Everybody Gets Turn At Upland High Pool

More than 400 youngsters and adults have registered for American Red Cross swimming lessons at Upland High School plunge this summer, ithas been announced by PoolDirector Gus Rischer.

Under direction of George Colbath, assistant pool director, lessons offered are beginning, intermediate, swimmer, junior and senior lifesaving and adult classes at each of three hours in the morning—8:45, 9:30 and 10:15.

Classes begin every two weeks throughout the summer. Registration is held at the pool each Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning before classes begin on Monday. Admission charge of $1 is paid at time of registration.

A youngster can become an accomplished swimmer in a matter of weeks, Mr. Rischer pointed out by re-registering every two weeks.

Other members of Mr. Rischer's staff this summer are: Instructors Gail Frankish, Lynda Vizio, Betty - Jean Smith, Ted Smith, Ray Wakeman, Mike Allila, Tom Cleland and Willard Wright; and Student Aides Elwyn Dennis, David Swihart, Julie Thrall, Nancy Hanlon, Bev Behm, Jo Keyes, Linda Sampson, Gail Castellini, Carol Hongola, Susan Gray, Norman Dennis, Melinda Rosenberger and Linda Quattrocciochi.

Semi-private lessons are offered at 11 a.m. daily, taking youngsters down to 5 years of age.

The plunge is also open afternoons and evenings to the public for recreational swimming. Pool hours are 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday and Sunday hours are from 1 to 5 p.m. Admission is 20 cents for children, 12 and under; 25 cents for students and 35 cents for adults. Three lifeguards are on duty at all times.

Under supervision of Mike Ollila, a swimming team is being formed for competition with other area swim schools. Youngsters between 7 and 18 years of age should register at the cashiers office.

Further information on the plunge may be received by calling YU-2-1395.

Fall Into 3rd Taken By Upland

Upland's American Legion Junior baseball team fell into third place in District 25 standings with a 3-2 mark following an 11-4 defeat by Ontario at John Galvin Park recently Sunday afternoon. Ontario remained in first place, 4-0, with Chinotaking second spot, 3-1.

Despite a 6-1 lead grabbed by Ontario, Upland got back in the ball game in the bottom of the sixth with three runs. Tommy Solters doubled, Lou Schmultz and Carlyle Lyneis singled and that sparked the rally.

A pair of eighth inning runs decided things for Ontario.

Lyneis with two hits in four trips and Bob Palos with two in five paced Upland's attack.

Upland Resident Heads Fund Drive For Oasis Youth Club

Jack D. Brewer of Upland has accepted position as drive chairman for Oasis Youth Center Building Fund.

Mr. Brewer will be in charge of the campaign which will be conducted throughout the entire Chaffey District from Sept. 1 until Oct. 1. Money will be raised to construct a 10,000 square foot building at an estimated cost of $9 per foot. The facility will be constructed on property that Ontario City Council leased to Oasis for $1 per year for 25 years. Option is to be renewed at end of this period. The property is located on West Fifth St., adjacent to El Camino School, Ontario.

In accepting chairmanship of the drive, Mr. Brewer stated, "I believe very strongly in providing our teenagers with a place to go, and to help keep them off the streets. Oasis is definitely an investment in the youth of our Chaffey District, and in our future citizens."

Mr. Brewer particularly stressed that "a meeting had been held within recent weeks by Adult Advisors of the Oasis with representatives of West End United Fund. The Oasis drive will be conducted on a Pledge basis, and details have been mutually worked out so as to not interfere with the annual United Fund drive."

A year later, he purchased the Ontario and Covina stores from his father, C. Ray Brewer, who had established them 10 years previously.

Mr. Brewer has worked on many divisions of the Community Chest drives, including co-chairman of the Business Division 1957 - 58, as well as the annual Heart Fund drives, Upland College development drive, YMCA drives, and the United Fund drive of last year. He is a past - active member of the Ontario 20 - 30 Club and a past - president of the San Bernardino 20 - 30 Club and is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Ontario Kiwanis Club.
